The Church in Pakistan is growing despite ongoing persecution of Christians. Those who chose to leave Islam and become Christ followers are often rejected by their families and communities. Believers often lose their jobs and are openly persecuted, even to the point of death. In 1997 an entire village of 13 churches, and thousands of Bibles were destroyed by an angry mob over a simple rumor that one of the Christians had torn the pages of the Quran (the Muslim holy book).

1500 Christian homes, destroyed by an angry mob over a simple rumor that one of the Christians had torn the pages of the Quran (the Muslim holy book).

But praise God, for such hardships have only fueled the Church's growth in Pakistan, and today those 13 churches have grown to over 100, a Bible College, the Jesus Heals Medical Clinic and a school fees support program for the poor children. An traveling evangelistic team is being formed to travel throughout Pakistan, using the Jesus film and other resources to shine the light of Christ into villages that have never had an opportunity to know about Him.

Pastor Mujahid el Masih lived in that Pakistani village destroyed by Muslim radicals in 1997. In 1999, the Lord moved him, his wife and two children to the United States. He has been traveling throughout our country teaching the truth of Islam, sharing his testimony and representing Voice of the Martyrs. He preaches/speaks in churches, schools, etc. every week, while also overseeing the ministry of Faith Covenant International in Pakistan.

Pastor Masih and FCI are trusting God to raise up prayer and financial partners here in the United States who will stand with brothers and sisters in Pakistan. Prayer support is so important, as believers daily face persecution while also struggling to provide for their families and congregations. Financial support enables Pastor Masih to continue teaching and preaching, and the work of FCI to continue and expand.

Listed below are several ways in which you can partner with Pastor Mujahid el Masih, Faith Covenant International and the believers of Pakistan. May the Lord bless you as you prayerfully consider how you might become involved with FCI.

Faith Covenant International is a non-profit Christian missionary organization and all gifts to it are tax deductible. To keep administrative costs low, receipts for donations to this ministry are sent out at the end of the fiscal year unless otherwise requested.
